

Continuous School Reports were emailed out on Friday, hard copies will make their way home this week. Please ensure the school has a valid email address (and other contacts) for you in order to receive your reports promptly and to contact you efficiently in the event of a school closure due to snow etc.